Thornbloom - Magnusson Family History

The Magnusson Family in the Karlskoga Area of Sweden

When our early Magnusson ancestors arrived in the United States in the late nineteenth century, they changed their name to Thornbloom. Many of our earliest known Magnusson ancestors settled in and around the city of Karlskoga, Sweden. Today, Karlskoga is an industrial town in central Sweden and the seat of Karlskoga Municipality located in Örebro County (Län).

The parish of Karlskoga was established in 1586 by King Charles IX and a wooden church was soon built. Karlskoga was formed as rural municipality when the first Swedish local government acts came into force in 1863. In 1925 the southern part was detached, forming Degerfors Municipality. In 1940 the town of Karlskoga and the surrounding area (the same territory as today's Karlskoga Municipality) got the formal title of a city (stad). Since 1971, these titles were abolished and only the built-up area is considered a de facto city.

In the 17th century fourteen small iron works and eight water driven hammers for bar iron were established in and round Karlskoga. Most of these were still operating in the 1860s, but the dominating iron works was the one in nearby Bofors. In 1871, Bofors produced 6,124 metric tons of iron, more than any other plant in Sweden. In 1882, Karlskoga parish (socken) had 11,184 inhabitants.

The town of Karlskoga has evolved around the defense industry Bofors. The most famous owner of Bofors was Alfred Nobel who owned the company from 1894 until his death in December of 1896. He had the key role in reshaping the iron manufacturer to a modern cannon manufacturer and chemical industry. He was the inventor of dynamite and later established the Nobel Prize.

In 1986, the city of Karlskoga celebrated its 400th Anniversary. Many Magnusson family descendants both from Sweden and America attended ceremonies that summer. With the assistance of Kjell Nordqvist of the Karlskoga bergslags hembygdsforening and Darrel Hagberg in America, and with contributions from many ancestors: a grave marker was dedicated to Anders Werelius (father of Anna Cathrina Werelius) at the Karlskoga Church cemetery.

- Emma Kristina Magnusdotter, born on 24 Mar 1873 Tavlan-Källmo, Karlskoga, Värmland, Sweden.

The Magnus Pettersson family lived in a small cottage at Tavlan, Sweden from 1858 to 1888. Tavlan is located 7.7 kilometers north of Karlskoga. The cottage and land probably belonged to a large land owner who rented the place for farm work. The family was very poor. Magnus provided water to travelers on the road between Karlskoga and Tavlan to Kallmo. The water well was located directly across the road from the cottage. Magnus was probably engaged in farming activities for the land owner. It was also thought that he was a shoe maker. The cottage was about 24 feet long and 24 feet wide. The first floor was divided into a kitchen area located in the front part of the cottage and a small sleeping area in the rear. Most of the family slept in the 12 foot by 24 foot rear section. There was a small attic space that probably provided additional sleeping space.

*Magnus Pettersson located in Tavlan
(7.7 km north of Karlskoga)*

The little cottage was located along the highway from Karlskoga to Tavlan in 1985 and was seen by Darrel, Betty, and Darla Hagberg. It had been well taken care of by the owner who showed it to them. The cottage contained the furniture used by the Magnus Pettersson family and was in "museum-like" condition.

In 2003, the old cottage at Tavlan came into the hands of the Karlskoga city authorities.

Karlskoga city authorities did not want to keep the cottage at Tavlan, because they were afraid it could be damaged by vandals, so the Karlskoga Heritage Society took it over. It was transported from Tavlan to the "Hembygdsgard" (Historical Society where the Karlskoga 400 year hundred celebrations were held with Werelius descendants from Sweden and America in 1986). Today it is standing next to the "Hembygdsgard" building. It currently houses a shoemakers shop museum and an assortment old handmade textiles.

Magnus Pettersson Cottage located at the Hembygdsgard, Karlskoga, Sweden in 2008

After the relocation of the cottage to the "Hembygdsgard" in Karlskoga, it underwent restoration to remove recent additions. The side of the cottage reveals that timbers were taken from old sea going vessels from the 1700's to build the cottage in the early 1800's. This is indicated by the numerous holes through these timbers. Most houses, barns and other buildings in Sweden are painted red because of the available of copper which was used in the paint. Copper came from the Darlana region of Sweden, located north of Karlskoga.

The Children of Magnus Pettersson

Seven members of the Magnus Pettersson Family left Sweden for America at various times in the late nineteenth century and early twentieth century. After arriving in America the Magnus Pettersson's sons changed their last name to "Törnblom." Later this was changed to "Thornbloom" which sounded more American, Törn is Swedish "tower" and blom is "bloom." Törnblom could have been a military name assigned to Eric or one of his brothers to distinguish them from hundreds of other Magnusson's as the name Magnusson was a very common name in Sweden. The two oldest daughters, Anna Lisa Magnusdotter and Maria Karolina Magnusdotter, remained in Sweden.

According to the 1890 Swedish Cenus, Anna Lisa was living at No. 6 Westra Gatan, Örebro, Örebro Län, Närke, Sweden. The 1900 Swedish Cenus showed Anna Lisa was living at Drottninggatan 36, Örebro, Örebro Län, Närke, Sweden.

On 09 November 1886, they moved from Munktorp to Ryttern. They were living in Dingtuna starting on 27 October 1890. Three years later, they were in Hubbe. ## Carl Johan Magnusson Horneman Thornbloom Family

Carl was a Corporal in the Swedish Army in the town of Horn near Munktorp from 1878 through 1900. From 1878 to 1888, he changed his name of "Fröjd." This was a normal practice in the Swedish Army because many soldiers had similar last names and Magnusson was a very common last name. To distinguish himself from the other soldiers, he took a new last name. Between 1889 and 1901, he changed his name again to "Horneman" (after the army post where he was stationed, "Horn"). According to the 1890 and 1900 Swedish Census, the family is living in Horn, Sweden.

According to Swedish records, he left Nedervi, Lillhärad, Västmanlands Län, Västmanland, Sweden, on 19 February 1907 with his wife, Josefina, and two of his children, Karl and Nils. The family most likely arrived in the United States in March 1907. The exact information concerning their arrival has not been determined mainly because of the many names that they assumed during their immigration. The family was processed through Ellis Island before being allowed into United States.

Carl's son, Olaf Victor, came to America on 21 November 1906, and settled in Rockford, Illinois. Another son, Carl Horneman, and a daughter, Agnes Horneman, remained in Sweden.

After his arrival in the United States in 1907, he changed his last name to Thornbloom (similar to his brothers).

Swedish emigrant records shows a Karl J Magnusson of America leaving Gothenberg on 23 August 1907 and a Karl Jojan Horneman of Rytterne (born in Karlskoga) leaving Gothenberg on 25 September 1926.

His brother, Eric, was the first family member to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). Eric helped Carl to leave Sweden and come to America through a loan program sponsored by John Deere. This helped Deere and Company to recruit workers for their plant in Moline, Illinois. After working for Deere for a while, Carl returned to farming his occupation in Sweden. Carl and Josefina had 6 children, one died as an infant:

- Carl Johan Horneman, born on 15 November 1878 in Munktorp, Värmland Län, Sweden. Remained in Sweden.
- Agnes Horneman, born on 23 July 1884 in Ryttern, Värmland Län, Sweden. Remained in Sweden.
- Victor Olaf Thornbloom, born on 29 July 1886 in Ryttern, Värmland Län, Sweden

- Unknown Thornbloom, born on 30 Nov 1901 in Hallstahammar, Sweden, Died in Sweden.

Anders Fredrik Magnusson Thornbloom Family

Anders Fredrik Magnusson left Östamra, Munktorp, Västmanlands län, Sweden on 27 March 1893, temporarily leaving his wife, Anna Hast, and family behind in Sweden. Anders had read about rich farm land in Alabama in an advertisement in a St. Paul, Minnesota, newspaper sent to him by his brother Eric, who had immigrated earlier.

To his friends, Anders was known as "Fret." He travelled with a good friend, Erik Windblad. They took a train from Västerås to Gothenburg and then traveled to Helsingborg. Anders and Erik traveled on the Ship "Italia" departing from Helsingborg, Malmöhus, Sweden, using the family name, Magnusson. The ship arrived in New York on April 24, 1893. On line 181 of the ship's manifest, his name is listed as: "Anders J. Magnusson." Line 182 list his friend as: "Erik Aug. Windblad."

After arriving in New York, Anders and Erik went to the Immigrant Station located at Ellis Island for an immigration check. They took a train from New York to Moline, Illinois, to visit his brother, Eric and a cousin, Gus Thornbloom, before going to Alabama. Fret and friend Erik Windblad went to the "Flat Iron Saloon" in East Moline to look for his brother. Eric thought that he recognized his brother Fret and said to a friend: "I swear that's my brother Fret." Fret then called out to his brother Eric. After visiting with his brother, Anders Fredrik decided not to go to Alabama but instead stayed in the Moline, Illinois area.

Immigrant Station located on Ellis Island, New York

The German ship SS Bohemia brought Anna Hast Magnusson and her children to New York

Later in the year, Fret sent for his wife, Anna Hast, and his children: Henrik, Anna, Carrie (Ingeborg), and Swan (Elias). The family traveled from Goteborg, Goteborg och Bohus, Sweden, on the German ship "Bohemia." Again, they used the family name Magnussen. They arrived at Ellis Island, New York, on November 21, 1893. After clearing their immigration check at Ellis Island, they took a train from New Jersey to Moline, Illinois.

The train trip would have taken about 2 days arriving around November 25 in Moline.

After his arrival in America, Anders Fredrik took a job at the "Swedish Brickyard" below the hill near the Moline-East Moline city limits. His friend, Erik Windblad, purchased the first lot in what is now the city of East Moline, Illinois near First Street and 17th Avenue.

Erik Windblad brought his wife, Johanna, a young son, John, and daughter, Signe, to America later in 1894.

In 1894, Anders Fredrik (known as Fret to his friends) took up farming near Third Street, East Moline, Illinois, near the current location of St. Mary's Cemetery. He rented the land from a man named "Edlund". Ivar was born in Moline, Illinois, on 1895 March 08. This was their first child to be born in America. After two years, Fred moved his family to the Fountain Place in Port Byron, Illinois. He rented the farm property from a man named Peirsall from about 1896 to 1902. Casper was born on 1897 May 05 and Phyra was born 1899 July 29. Mrs Erik Windblad was a midwife and helped to bring the first Thornbloom children born in America into the world.

Fret and his family moved to Cambridge, Illinois, in 1902. He purchased a meat market and livery stable. Ida was born 1903 February 03 in Cambridge. While in Cambridge, Anna sold subscriptions to a magazine, and won a diamond ring. She also worked as a Chef in a local restaurant. The Windblad brother's mentioned that Fret was not a very good businessman because he was too generous to his hired help. Fret finally decided to get back into farming about 1904. He sold his business and moved to Blue Grass, Iowa, where he purchased a farm.

While in Blue Grass, Fret not only ran the farm but also ran a coal mine operation from 1904-1913.

Sadie was born on the farm on 1905 February 07. In 1908, little Ida died at the age of 5 years. Although the cause of death is unknown, it was known that Ida bled easily and may have suffered from Hemophilae.

The family moved again in 1913 to a farm located in Ashley Township, Minnesota, for a short time. They then moved to the Morse farm located on the shores of Long Lake, northeast of Sauk Centre, Minnesota. Fret worked a farming operation and sold farm property to other new immigrants, thus helping many of his fellow countrymen to become established in America. They lived there for 25 years.

On 1919 September 21, Phyra died at 20 years. Again the cause was suspected to be Hemophilae.

Fret and Anna lived out their days in Sauk Centre, Minnesota, and are buried there in Greenwood cemetery, east of the city. Fret died on a Sunday, 1934 March 04, at 2:30 pm after an Illness.

Anna Hast was known as "Moster Fret" to her side of the family while Anders Fredrik was known as "Faster Fret" to his side of the family.

Fret and Anna along with their children: Anna, Carrie, and Henry, never became U.S. citizens. However, it is known that Swan did after several years in America.

Erik Windblad was to remain a life long friend of the Thornbloom family in America. His sons, John and Rudy also remained close to the family.

Reasons for the Immigration of Members of the Magnusson Family

Ulf Bejbom of The House of Emigrants, Växjö, Sweden, listed many reasons why Swedes came to America. He stated that immigration to America from Sweden reached its climax around 1910, when 1.4 million Swedish first and second generation immigrants were listed as living in the U.S. Compared with the Sweden's population at the time of 5.5 million meant that roughly one fifth of all Swedes had their homes in America right before World War I. The underlying reasons for this was due to a significant population increase starting in 1750 caused by 1) no wars since 1814, 2) small pox vaccinations, and 3) the introduction of the potato into the Swedish diet.

These improvements in health conditions and in longevity of the average Swede resulted in larger families and generations of divided inheritances that, in turn, led to the fragmentation of farms into tiny land holdings. From the middle of the eighteenth century to the middle of the nineteenth century, the population of some parishes had increased by a factor of six. Sweden became a land of poverty, want and social frustration by the latter half of the nineteenth century. Many Swedes saw no future in Sweden and decided to immigrate to America during this time period. This was also the case for most of the members of the Magnus Pettersson family.

Swedish Surname Practices

In Sweden, families used the patronymic surnames system where the father's first name was used as a part of his children's surname. They used this system since early times. It is said that Sweden kept excellent records on everyone. It must be concluded that good records were essential given that surnames were changing every generation in Sweden.

An example would be that if a man called Anders Johansson had a son named Karl and a daughter named Karin the children's full names would be: Karl Andersson and Karin Andersdotter. Son equals son and dotter equals daughter.

Karl was a son of Anders - Anders's son and Karin was a daughter of Anders - Anders's dotter.

That's why there is a double "ss" in Swedish "-son" names, Anders's son, or in Swedish; Anders son = Andersson. And, to take the patronymic naming to the next generation, if Karl Andersson had a son called Peter, then his full name would be Peter Karlsson.

The most important identity of a person (in a system with a patronymic naming practice) was his first name; I am Karl (son of Anders). The surname does not indicate a relationship other than among brothers or sisters.

Patronymic surnames were in constant use in rural Sweden and among day laborers in urban centers until the 1860's. At that time it became popular among these groups to adopt a family surname carried from one generation to the next. A lot of families then adopted a name connected to their home village or a name connected to nature. However, the majority just "froze" their patronymic surname as their family name. Since Anders was a popular first name we have a lot of Andersson families in Sweden.

The 19 most common surnames in Sweden today are "-son" names. The most common is Johansson, followed by Andersson and Karlsson.

The most common non "-son" names are Lindberg, followed by Lindkvist and Lindgren.

Some typical Swedish patronymic names:

Andersson	Axelsson	Bengtsson	Danielsson
Davidsson	Eriksson	Gustavsson	Hansson
Håkansson	Isaksson	Jakobsson	Jansson
Johansson	Johnsson	Karlsson	Larsson
Lennartsson	Mattson	Nilsson	Olofsson
Olsson	Ottosson	Persson	Pettersson
Svensson	Wilhelmsson	Åkesson

To further complicate matters, many Swedes did not follow the patronymic surnames system. Instead they chose names from the following categories:

- Clerical Names: Names were Latinized. The latinizing of first names as well as surnames was not only used by the clergy, but also most of the learned men such as university professors, scientists, mathematicians etc.
- Nobility Names: When the privileges of nobility were first handed out, the noble families were using patronymic names. But when they were given their patent of nobility and privileges they also were given a Coat of Arms on which were emblazoned heraldic symbols. From these symbols the noble family names slowly evolved.
- Craftsmen Names: Individuals used the name of their craft for their surname.
- Military Names: When a soldier was enrolled into the Army, they were given a special "soldier name". Within each Company the soldiers had to have a unique last name. When an order was given to a certain soldier only one soldier was to react. These soldier names were of special character, many of the names had a military touch. The same was true in the Navy.
- Nature Names: Some Swedes adopted surnames from Nature. Examples are topographical features, flora (trees), fauna, direction (north, south, etc.), weather condition (storm, gail, etc.).

In 1901 a law, The Names Adoption Act, was passed concerning the adoption of family names. The most important thing about the law was that the patronymic naming practice as well as other practices was abolished. From 1901 everyone had to have a family name, a family name that was passed down to the next generation. However, this did not stop Swedes travelling to America from changing their names. Old practices die hard!

When Magnusson's arrived in America, most of them chose a name from the last category, "Nature Names." They chose the name Tornblom. Later, this became Thornbloom, a very English sounding name which helped them to further assimilate into the American society. Before his arrival in America, Carl Thornbloom had a Military Name. He changed his name in Sweden to "Horneman" after the army post where he was stationed, "Horn".

Early Swedes in America Discourage the Use of the Swedish Language

Many Swedes that arrived in America immediately wanted to speak the English language. They taught themselves in many cases. Swedish parents encouraged their children to learn English by not using Swedish in their homes. This was very true for our family as well. Most Swedes had very little interest in their native country and talked very little about their past life in Sweden. For many, Sweden was a land of little opportunity and a land that provided very little for them. Many Swedish-Americans kept in close contact with their families in Sweden. Yet, many others had no interest in ever returning to Sweden.

The Great Immigration to America

The "Great Immigration" could be defined as the period beginning in 1892 and ending by 1924. There were other periods in American history where there were peaks in the numbers of immigrants coming to America to find a new life, such as the Irish Famine period (1840's - 1850's).

In 1864, during part of the late Civil War, the government encouraged new immigrants to come to the United States to foster prosperity. The golden door was flung wide open for all Europeans.

There were many and varied reasons for immigrating to America: 1) High increase in European population due to better health standards, 2) Lack of land to support the population, 3) Freedom from political oppression, and 4) Opportunity for work. Also, by the 1880's, steam power had shortened the journey to America dramatically and made it very cost effective for people to immigrate. Immigrants poured in from around the world:

Immigrants on the American Pier at Gothenburg, Sweden, in 1900

from the Middle East, the Mediterranean, Southern and Eastern Europe, and down from Canada. Between 1880 and 1930 over 27 million people entered the United States of which 20 million came through Ellis Island.

While most immigrants entered the United States through New York Harbor (the most popular destination of steamship companies), others sailed into many ports such as Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, San Francisco and Savannah, Miami, and New Orleans. The great steamship companies like White Star, Red Star, Cunard and Hamburg-America played a significant role in the history of Ellis Island and immigration in general. First and second class passengers who arrived in New York Harbor were not required to undergo the inspection process at Ellis Island. Instead, these passengers underwent a cursory inspection aboard ship; the theory being that if a person could afford to purchase a first or second class ticket, they were less likely to become a public charge in America due to medical or legal reasons. The Federal government felt that these more affluent passengers would not end up in institutions, hospitals or become a burden to the state. However, first and second class passengers were sent to Ellis Island for further inspection if they were sick or had legal problems.

Families often immigrated together during this era, although young men frequently came first to find work. Some of these then sent for their wives, children, and siblings; others returned to their families in Europe with their saved wages.

The tidal wave of Swedish emigration began in the mid 1840s, when the first organized emigrant groups started to arrive in New York. These were farmers destined to Iowa and Illinois. Between years 1821 to 1924 approximately 1.3 million Swedes immigrated. Most of them left for the US but some also went to Australia, New Zealand, South America and Canada. Approximately 200,000 immigrants went back to Sweden but 1.1 million stayed for good. The effect of this exodus from Sweden reached its climax around 1910, when 1.4 million Swedish first and second generation immigrants were listed as living in America. Compared to Sweden's population at the time (5.5 million) roughly one fifth of all Swedes had their homes in America before the start of World War I. By 1990, there were more Swedish descendants in the US than there were Swedes in Sweden.

The Swedes still rank number seven among the European immigrant groups. In proportion to the population of their home countries, only the British Isles and Norway surpassed Sweden in the number of immigrants.

Immigrants Arriving in New York During the Great Immigration

The time period on the arrival of an immigrant determined where they were processed for entry into America at New York City. This was their first experience in America and generally it was not a pleasant one.

- Immigrants arriving prior to 1 August 1855 were not processed but were allowed free entry.
- Immigrants arriving from 1 August 1855 to 18 April 1890 were processed at Castle Garden.
- Immigrants arriving from 19 April 1890 to 31 December 1897 were processed at the Barge Office.
- Immigrants arriving from 1 January 1892 to 14 June 1897 were processed at Ellis Island.
- Immigrants arriving from 15 June to 16 December 1900 were processed at the Barge Office.
- Immigrants arriving from 17 December 1900 to 1 July 1924 were processed at Ellis Island.
- Immigrants arriving after 30 June 1924 were processed at US consular offices in the immigrant's home country

Arrivals prior to 1 August 1855

Prior to 1855, the passengers got off the ship onto whatever wharf they had landed on in Manhattan. There was no central processing center. They were recorded on passenger arrival lists beginning in 1820. New arrivals were allowed to simply leave for their designations and their new life in America.

Arrivals from 1 August 1855 to 18 April 1890 – Castle Garden

Castle Garden in 1890

Castle Garden was established when immigration affairs were left to the control of the States. Castle Garden was located on the southwest tip of Manhattan in Battery Park while the Barge Office was located on the southeast tip.

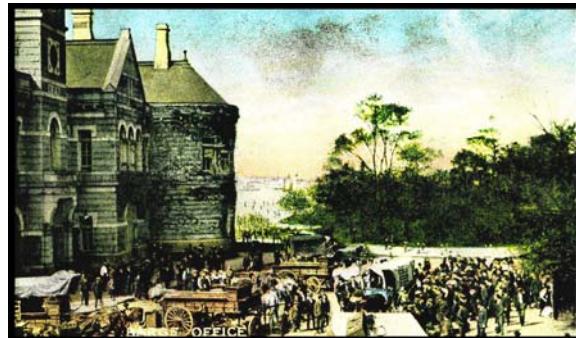

The federal government took over control of immigration on 19 April 1890 and Castle Garden was closed.

From 1882 the reception of immigrants was handled as a joint State / Federal system. The Secretary of the Treasury signed a contract with the New York State Commissioners of Emigration to continue its services at Castle Garden. On April 1, 1890, the Secretary terminated the contract and on April 18, 1890, the Treasury Department assumed total control of immigration at the Port of New York. The New York State authorities refused to allow the federal government to use the Castle Garden facilities. On 19 April 1890, the federal government relocated to the Barge Office for the processing of immigrants.

Castle Garden still became a legendary place for a generation of immigrants. From 1896 to 1941 it was New York City's Aquarium. Today Castle Garden is called Castle Clinton National Monument. It serves as a visitor information center for New York's National Parks and Monuments.

Arrivals from 19 April 1890 to 31 December 1897 – Barge Office

On April 19, 1890, the federal government set up a temporary center in the old Barge Office at the foot of Whitehall Street near the Battery at the southeast end of Manhattan.

Arrivals from 1 January 1892 to 14 June 1897 – Ellis Island

Immigrant Station on Ellis Island in 1905

During the years of Ellis Island immigration from 1892-1924, there were more than twenty million individual stories that would eventually be shared with family and friends. Whether passengers or crew, first class or steerage, the voyage was an unforgettable experience. The passenger ships to New York did not actually land at Ellis Island. Instead they landed at Manhattan and the passengers were ferried over to the island for processing. Generally only steerage passengers went to Ellis Island for inspection. Most of the first and second class passengers were allowed to leave the ship soon after docking. All passengers, however, were generally listed on the ship manifest (or passenger list) as required by law.

The Ellis Island fire of the night of June 14, 1897 also destroyed some Ellis Island administrative records and the New York immigration passenger lists.

Arrivals from 15 June 1897 to 16 December 1900 – Barge Office

On the night of June 14-15, 1897 the building on Ellis Island was destroyed in a fire so the Barge Office was again used for immigrants. The customs passenger records were kept elsewhere and were not lost in the fire. On December 17, 1900, the New York Tribune offered a scathing account of conditions at the Battery station including "grimy, gloomy...more suggestive of an enclosure for animals than a receiving station for prospective citizens of the United States."

Arrivals from 17 December 1900 to 1 July 1924 – Ellis Island

After the fire, the United States Treasury quickly ordered the Ellis Island facility be replaced under one very important condition. All future structures built on Ellis Island had to be fireproof. On December 17, 1900, the new Main Building was opened and 2,251 immigrants were received that day.

If the immigrant's papers were in order and they were in reasonably good health, the Ellis Island inspection process would last approximately three to five hours. The inspections took place in the Registry Room (or Great Hall), where doctors would briefly scan every immigrant for obvious physical ailments. By 1916, it was said that a doctor could identify numerous medical conditions (ranging from anemia to goiters to varicose veins) just by glancing at an immigrant. The ship's manifest log (that had been filled out back at the port of embarkation) contained the immigrant's name and his/her answers to twenty-nine questions. This document was used by the legal inspectors at Ellis Island to cross examine the immigrant during the legal (or primary) inspection.

Main Building at Ellis Island in 1900

Despite the island's reputation as an "Island of Tears", the vast majority of immigrants was treated courteously and respectfully, and was free to begin their new lives in America after only a few short hours on Ellis Island. Only two percent of the arriving immigrants were excluded from entry. The two main reasons why an immigrant would be excluded were if a doctor diagnosed that the immigrant had a contagious disease that would endanger the public health or if a legal inspector thought the immigrant was likely to become a public charge or an illegal contract laborer.

Arrivals after 30 June 1924

After outbreak of World War I in 1914, American attitudes toward immigration began to shift. Nationalism and suspicion of foreigners were on the rise, and immigrants' loyalties were often called into question. Through the early 1920's, a series of laws was passed to limit the flow of immigrants. With the Immigration Act of 1924 restricting further immigration, the annual quota of immigrants reduces to 164,000. The buildings on Ellis Island begin to fall into neglect and abandonment. America is experiencing the end of mass immigration. On July 1, 1924 a new law went into effect which stated that immigrants were to be inspected at US consular offices in the immigrant's home country before coming to the US. Ellis Island continued to be used as an alien detention center until November 1954. Today, it is a Museum dedicated to the "Great Immigration."

Magnusson's Immigrating to America

The land in Sweden could no longer support many of the Magnusson children during the late 19th and early 20th Century. Therefore, they needed to find other opportunities and America became their first choice. The table below lists those that left Sweden and their arrivals dates.

Female Bleeding Disorder in Magnusson Line

The following Magnusson Women died very young. It is thought that they all had a bleeding disorder:

- Thyra Thornbloom, Age 20 years
- Klara Ulrika Magnusdotter Johnson, Age 26 (in child birth)
- Emma Kristina Magnusdotter Blad, Age 35

It is unlikely that the cause was hemophilia. Hemophilia is primarily an inherited disease that prevents the blood from clotting properly. Approximately 18,000 individuals in the United States have hemophilia. People with hemophilia have a deficiency of a blood protein, also called a "clotting factor," that is necessary to clot the blood and stop bleeding. Originally, hemophilia was thought to be a single disease. In the 1950s, it was recognized that there were 2 forms of the disease: hemophilia A and hemophilia B.

Normally a woman is only a carrier of hemophilia, but if her mother is a carrier and her father has hemophilia the female does have a chance to get it. It is very rare for this to happen but it has been recorded.

Von Willebrand disease (VWD) is the most common inherited bleeding disorder that people have and this may have been the cause.

There are various types of VWD. All the different types are caused by a problem with the von Willebrand factor (VWF). This is a protein in blood which is necessary for proper blood coagulation, or clotting.

When there is not enough VWF in the blood, or when it does not work the way it should, the blood takes longer to clot.

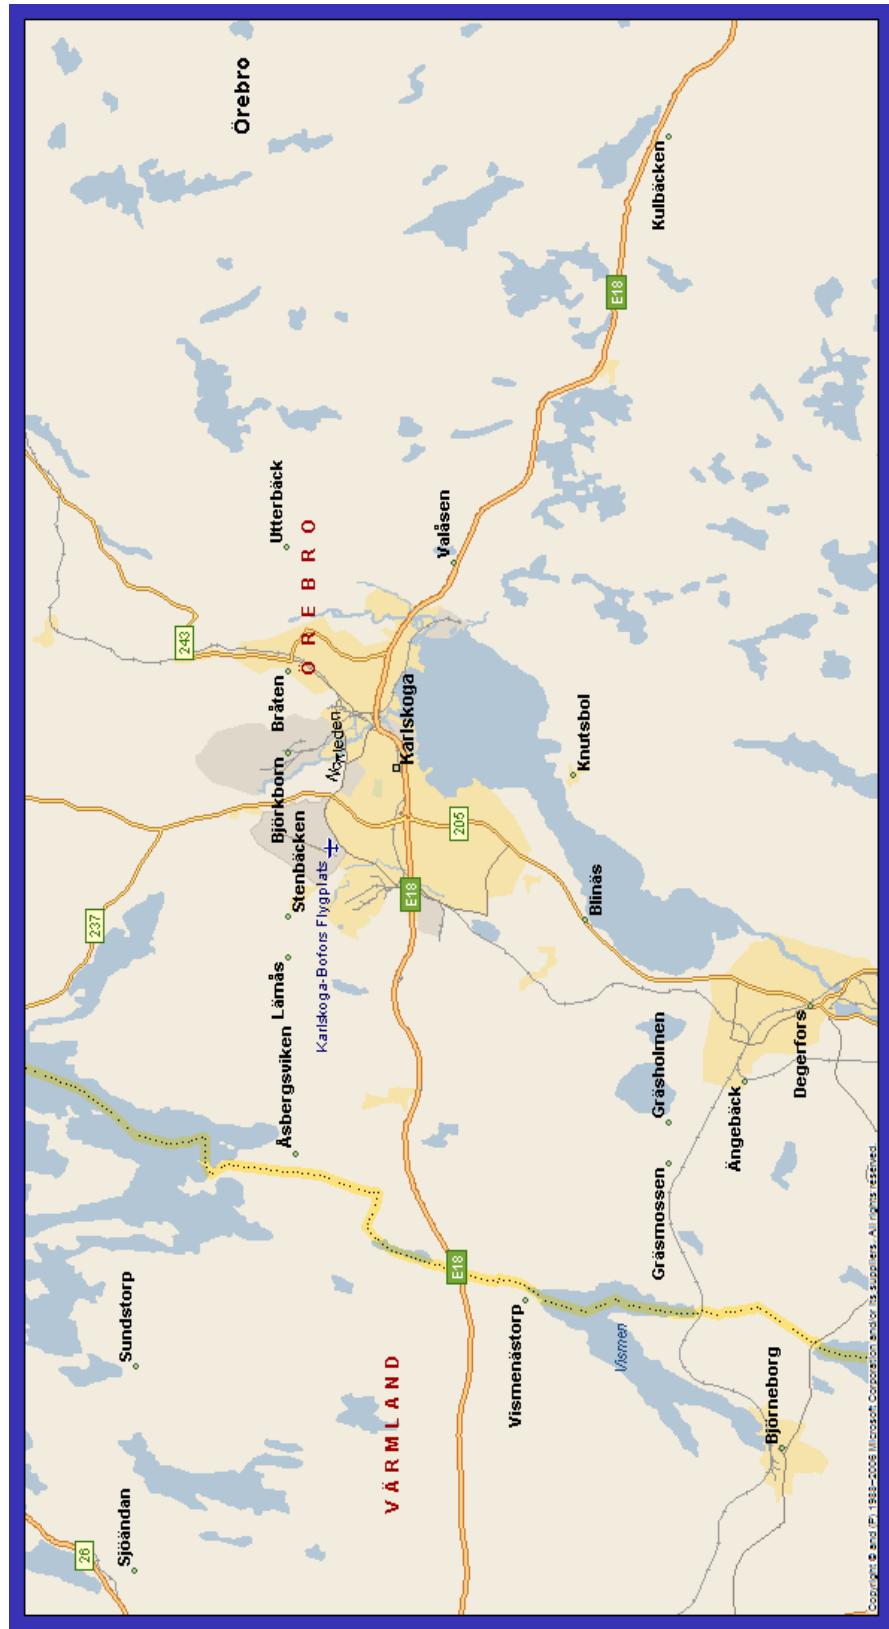

There are other types of bleeding disorders and it may never be known how these women died.

Notes for Magnus Pettersson:

General Notes:

The Magnus Pettersson family lived in a small cottage Tavlan, Sweden from 1858 to 1888. Tavlan is located 7.7 kilometers north of Karlskoga. The cottage and land probably belonged to a large land owner who rented the place for farm work. The family was very poor. Magnus provided water to travelers on the road between Karlskoga and Tavlan to Kolyma. The water well was located directly across the road from the cottage. The cottage was about 24 feet long and 24 feet wide. The first floor was divided into a kitchen area located in the front part of the cottage and a small sleeping area in the rear. The most of the family slept in the 12 foot by 24 foot rear section. There was a small attic space that probably provided additional sleeping space.

The little cottage was seen along the highway from Karlskoga to Tavlan in 1986 by Darrel, Betty, and Darla Hagberg. It had been well taken care of the owner who showed it to them. The cottage contained the furniture used by the Magnus Pettersson family and was in "museum-like" condition.

In 2003, the Karlskoga Historical Society moved the little cottage to the inner city area. The following are E-mail's received by Darrel Hagberg from Sweden:

Darrel,

It was a pleasant surprise to hear from you after a number of years. I am 84 now, but am still active with our emigrant history. I get a good deal of info via the net and go down to our archives 2-3 times a week to include it in our files.

The old cottage at Tavlan came into the hands of the city authorities. They did not want to keep the cottage at the spot, as they were afraid it would be a haunt of drug-addicts, so our Heritage Society took it over, and it is now standing beside our "hembygdsgard" (where we had the party after the dedication of the Werelius stone*). It was taken by car from Tavlan to the "hembygdsgard". It will house a shoemaker's shop (museal). Also textiles will be kept there.

Best wishes to you and your family, the baby (Angela) included,

Kjell

Dear Mr Hagberg,

I got a message from Kjell Nordquist that you were interested in the small cottage in Tavlan north of Karlskoga, where Sally Herbst's ancestors came from. It is true that the cottage has now been moved to the Local Heritage Society of Karlskoga and its mansion there. The city council of Karlskoga wanted the house removed from its old place. It had been empty for many years and there was a fear that the house could turn into some shelter for drug-users etc.

So we got it from the city council, moved it to our old homestead and has given it a new life; careful restoration has begun. It is not a "backstuga", which means that a house is dug into the hill slope behind. Its is quite an ordinary old Swedish cottage from the medium 1880's. But it is a nice little cottage and will be used for a) a shoemaker's museum in the kitchen and b) for handicraft, exp. textiles in the room.

I guess Kjell Nordqvist has given you more detail's of the house. Your cousin is very welcome to come and see it!

With best wishes,
Karin Oman
President of the Local Heritage Society of Karlskoga.

10. Carl Johan Magnusson Horneman-8 (Magnus-7, Petter Olsson-6, Olof Persson-5, Per-4, Nils-3, Jon-2, Nils-1)<sup>[50, 51, 52, 53, 54]</sup> was born on 17 Aug 1859 in Tavlan-Källmo, Karlskoga, Värmlands Län, Sweden<sup>[11]</sup>. He died on 22 Nov 1940 in Rockford, Winnebago, Illinois, USA.

Notes for Carl Johan Magnusson Horneman:

General Notes:

Carl was a Corporal in the Swedish Army in the town of Horn near Munktorp from 1878 through 1900. From 1878 to 1888, he changed his name of "Fröjd." This was a normal practice in the Swedish Army because many soldiers had similar last names and Magnusson was a very common last name. To distinguish himself from the other soldiers, he took a new last name. Between 1889 and 1901, he changed his name again to "Horneman" (after the army post where he was stationed, "Horn"). According to the 1890 and 1900 Swedish Census, the family is living in Horn, Sweden.

According to Swedish records, he left Nedervi, Lillhärad, Västmanlands Län, Västmanland, Sweden, on 19 February 1907 with his wife, Josefina, and two of his children, Karl and Nils. The family most likely arrived in the United States in March 1907. The exact information concerning their arrival has not been determined mainly because of the many names that they assumed during their immigration.

Carl's son, Olaf Victor, came to America on 21 November 1906, and settled in Rockford, Illinois. Another son, Carl Horneman, and a daughter, Agnes Horeman, remained in Sweden.

After his arrival in the United States in 1907, he changed his last name to Thornbloom (similar to his brothers).

Swedish emigrant records shows a Karl J Magnusson of America leaving Gothenberg on 23 August 1907 and a Karl Jojan Horneman of Rytterne (born in Karlskoga) leaving Gothenberg on 25 September 1926.

Carl's brother, Eric, was the first brother to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). He helped his other brothers to leave Sweden and come to America through a loan program sponsored by John Deere. This helped Deere and Company to recruit workers for their plant in Moline, Illinois. After working for Deere for awhile, most of the brothers returned to farming (their occupation in Sweden). However, Gus Adolf worked for the railroad.

Josefina Katerina Pettersson daughter of Karl Pettersson<sup>[144, 145]</sup> was born on 28 Aug 1858 in Köpings landsförs, Västmanlands Län, Västmanland, Sweden. She died on 13 May 1955 in Rockford, Winnebago, Illinois, USA.

Carl Johan Magnusson Horneman and Josefina Katerina Pettersson were married on 19 Apr 1882 in Rytterne, Kolbäks, Munktorp, Västmanlands Län, Västmanland, Sweden. They had the following children:

He died on 05 Dec 1963 in Rytterne, Kolbäks, Munktorp, Västmanlands Län, Västmanland, Sweden.

He died on 04 Mar 1934 in St. Cloud, Iona Township, Todd County, MN<sup>[67]</sup>.

Notes for Anders Fredrik Magnusson Thornbloom:

General Notes:

Anders was also known Anders Törnblom and Anders Magnusson and Anders Magnussen. His nickname was "Fret." He and his brothers assumed the name Törnblom after their arrival in America. Later this was changed to Thornbloom which sounded more American, Törn is Swedish "tower" and blom is "bloom." Törnblom could have been a military name assigned to him or one of his brothers to distinguish them from hundreds of other Magnusson's. Magnusson was a very common name in Sweden.

Eric was the first brother to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). He helped his other brothers to leave Sweden and come to America through a loan program sponsored by John Deere. This helped Deere and Company to recruit workers for their plant in Moline, Illinois. After working for Deere for awhile, most of the brothers returned to farming (their occupation in Sweden). However, Gus Adolf worked for the railroad.

In 1880, Anders moved from Karlskoga to Munktorp. In 1883, he moved to Kolback and then back to Munktorp in 1884. He lived in Munktorp another 9 years before moving to Västerås, Sweden, to live with the Erik Windblad family. Fret's family lived there for 2-1/2 years.

According to the 1890 Swedish Census, Anders and his family was living in Munktorp, Västmanlands Län, Västmanlands, Sweden. His son, Fred Magnusson, is not shown in the census. Probably Fred died before 1890.

The family had read about farm land in America in an advertisement in a St. Paul, Minnesota, newspaper sent to him by his brother Carl.

Leaving his wife and children behind, Anders Fredrik Thornbloom (Magnussen) came to America with Erik Windblad, father of John and Rudy, in April 1893. They took a train from Västerås to Göteborg and then traveled to Helsingborg.

Anders traveled on the Ship "Italia" departing from Helsingborg, Malmohus, Sweden, using the family name, Magnussen. The ship arrived at Ellis Island in New York on April 24, 1893. On line 181 of the ship's manifest, his name is listed as: "Anders J. Magnussen." Line 182 list his friend as: "Erik Aug. Windblad."

After arriving in New York, Anders and Erik went to Ellis Island for an Immigration check. They took a train from New York to Moline, Illinois, to visit his brother, Carl and a cousin, Gus Thornbloom, before going to Alabama. Fret and friend Erik Windblad went to the "Flat Iron Saloon in East Moline to look for his brother. Carl thought that he recognized his brother Fret and said to a friend: "I swear that's my brother Fret." Fret then called out to his brother Carl. After visiting with his brother, Anders Fredrik decided not to go to Alabama but instead stay in the Moline, Illinois area.

Later in the year, Fredrik sent for his wife Anna Haft and his children: (Henrik, Anna, Carrie (Ingeborg), and Swan (Elias). The family traveled from Goteborg, Goteborg och Bohus, Sweden, on the German ship "Bohemia." Again, they used the family name Magnussen. They arrived at Ellis Island, New York, on November 21, 1893.

Erik Windblad brought his wife, Johanna, and a young son and daughter, John and Signe, to America later in 1894.

Anders Fredrik took a job at the "Swedish Brickyard" below the hill near the Moline-East Moline city limits. Erik Windblad purchased the first lot in what is now the city of East Moline, Illinois near First Street and 17th Avenue.

In 1894, Anders Fredrik (known as Fret to his friends) took up farming near Third Street, East Moline, Illinois, near the current location of St. Mary's Cemetery. He rented the land from a man named "Edlund". Ivar was born in Moline, Illinois, on 1895 March 08. This was their first child to be born in America. After two years, Fred moved his family to the Fountain Place in Port Byron, Illinois. He rented the farm property from a man named Peirsall from about 1896 to 1902. Casper was born on 1897 May 05 and Phyra was born 1899 July 29. Mrs Erik Windblad was a midwife and helped to bring the first Thornbloom children born in America into the world.

Fret and his family moved to Cambridge, Illinois, in 1902. He purchased a meat market and livery stable. Ida was born 1903 February 03 in Cambridge. While in Cambridge, Anna sold subscriptions to a magazine, and won a diamond ring. She also worked as a Chef in a local restaurant. The Windblad brother's mentioned that Fret was not a very good businessman because he was too generous to his hired help. Fret finally decided to get back into farming about 1904. He sold his business and moved to Blue Grass, Iowa, where he purchased a farm.

While in Blue Grass, Fret not only ran the farm but also ran a coal mine operation from 1904-1913 (approximate).

Sadie was born on the farm on 1905 February 07. In 1908, little Ida died at the age of 5 years. Although the cause of death is unknown, it was known that Ida bled easily and may have suffered from Hemophilae.

The family moved again in 1911 to a farm located in Ashley Township, Minnesota, for a short time. They then moved to the Morse farm located on the shores of Long Lake, northeast of Sauk Centre, Minnesota. Fret worked a farming operation and sold farm property to other new immigrants, thus helping many of his fellow countrymen to become established in America. They lived there for 25 years.

On 1919 September 21, Phyra died at 20 years. Again the cause was suspected to be Hemophilae.

He travelled by train to Bremen, Germany, and left there on the ship SS Donau, about 09 May 1887. He arrived in Baltimore, Maryland, on 15 Apr 1887.

Gustaf's brother, Eric, was the first brother to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). He helped his other brothers to leave Sweden and come to America through a loan program sponsored by John Deere. This helped Deere and Company to recruit workers for their plant in Moline, Illinois. After working for Deere for awhile, most of the brothers returned to farming (their occupation in Sweden). However, Gustaf Adolf worked for the railroad.

Notes on the SS Donau:

The DONAU was 2,896 gross tons, length 332 ft x beam 40 ft, clipper bows, one funnel, two masts, iron hull, single screw, speed 13 knots, accommodation for 60-1st and 700-3rd class passengers. Built by Caird & Co, Greenock, she was launched on 17th Oct.1868 for North German Lloyd, Bremen. Her maiden voyage started 16th Jan.1869 when she left Bremen for Southampton and New York and her last Bremen - New York sailing started on 16th Jan.1887. On 25th Sep.1889 she commenced her last Bremen - Baltimore voyage and was sold to H. Bischoff, Bremen on 21st Oct.1889. Rebuilt as a freighter, she sank on 16th Mar.1895 after catching fire in the North Atlantic en route Hamburg - Philadelphia. All aboard were saved by the British ship DELAWARE. All of her children helped her in the business until about 1942. While Laura stayed on and helped her during the War years, all of her boys went off to war or to the war industry.

Anna was the inventor of the Swedish Pancake in America. She sold her famous receipe to a pancake house (International House of Pancakes) in the late 1940's

She ran the restaurant until 1950 when her health started to decline. She lived in a small house north and adjacent to the Eagle Lunch restaurant. Anna loved house plants and collected many. This was part of her Swedish up bringing. She collected Hummel porcelain figurines for many years and gave these to Laura in her Will. However, many of her personal items were lost in a Mississippi River flood in the early 1960's including many valuable Photographs.

Anna had Parkinson's Disease for many years and finally died of it in 1963.

Anna is buried in Greenview Memorial Gardens, Silvis, IL, Garden of the Christus, Plot 241-B-2.

Claus Oscar Johannesson Augustson Hagberg<sup>[266, 267]</sup> was born on 18 Oct 1879 in Holmakra, Bjorkeborg, Sweden<sup>[268]</sup>. He died on 16 Oct 1932 in Green Grove, Clark, Wisconsin, USA.

Notes for Claus Oscar Johannesson Augustson Hagberg:

General Notes:

Claus was a furniture maker and farmer.

Claus and Anna were married at the Salem Lutheran Church, Moline, IL, by Pastor C. J. Youngberg on July 24, 1909.

Claus left his home in Hajom, Sweden, at the age of 22 years on 1902-03-07 and emigrated to America. Swedish Immigration records from 1783-1951 show that he left Gothenburg, Sweden, on March 14, 1902 under the name Klas Augustsson. The record shows that his destination as Cleveland, Ohio, and the place of origin was Hajom, Vastra Gotaland Lan, Sweden. He sailed from Gothenburg on board the "Ariosto" on 1902-03-14 to Hull, England, under the name Klas Augustsson. For his journey to America, he transferred to the British Liner "Oceanic" of the White Star Line in Liverpool, England, on 1902-03-19 according to the Original Ship Manifest (page 0539). He traveled to America under the name Klas Augustson. This was normally an 8 day trip and he arrived in New York on 1902-03-27 with 13 British Pounds in his pocket. His original destination in America was Cleveland, Ohio. The number of his contract (ticket) was 3925.

Claus traveled with the White Star Lines ship Oceanic from Liverpool to New York. He and another boy from Hajom called Algott Nilsson had tickets to Cleveland, Ohio. In the passengers list it says that they were going to an uncle A D Larsson. Claus had 13 dollars when he came to New York.

On August 5, 1904, Claus sent a postcard of the Barnard & Leas Manufacturing Company of Moline to his sister Anna in Sweden. In the postcard he writes:

"This is the factory where I work in Moline. I send many lovely regards with this postcard. I mailed photos a week ago. I hope that you have received them and have given them to those that should get them. C. O. Hagberg"

In a book written by Les Swanson, a friend of Darrel Hagberg, he writes that the Barnard & Leas Company was the manufacturer of grain milling machinery in Moline. Products included the Barnard grain separator, and flour sifters and sieve bolters which were developed in Hungary, but produced under a rights agreement by the firm so successfully that it was said that there was scarcely a mill in the USA that did not have some evidence of the Barnard and Leas trademark.

He was traveling to Cleveland to buy farm land in the South (Alabama ?). Hearing that there was work at John Deere Company in Moline, he changed his plans and traveled there. Since there was very little opportunity to buy another farm in Sweden, Claus went to America to work so that he could earn enough money to buy a farm.

We know where Claus lived during his first few years in America because his brother, Karl Ivar, joined him there after arriving in New York on 1905-03-09. The Original Ship Manifest for him shows that he was joining his brother at 410-11th Street, Moline, Illinois. This could have been a boarding house for men.

While in Moline, the family lived in a house on the southeast corner of 12th Avenue and 19th Street on the 14th Avenue circle.

Claus was living at 1715-13th Street Moline, IL, No. 410, according the Ship's Manifest Record for his brother Karl Augustson Hagberg, dated March 9, 1905.

He worked a number of years for John Deere in Moline. When business was slow at Deere, he worked in a Furniture Factory in Silvis, Illinois. It was the Silvis Variety Woodworks Company located at 1st Avenue at the northwest corner of 4th Street (owner ,W.T. Gallaher. They manufactured windows, binds, doors, mouldinds, stairs, office and store fixtures (from Moline city directory of 1908). He lost several fingers in an accident at the company. A photograph show the loss of these fingers.

He saved enough money to purchase farm land near Owen (Raynor), Wisconsin, from his father in-law, Fred Thornbloom, who was in land reality at the time. In 1911, Claus went with Johan Rudolph Borgesson to Withee, Wisconsin, to look at his land that he had purchased in nearby Owen. The land was all woods and brush. Johan Rudolph purchased some land in Withee but did not start working it until 1916.

He spoke English with a strong Swedish accent. He never spoke Swedish around his children after he discovered that Enger was having trouble in school with his English. However, he always spoke Swedish with his wife, Anna.

Claus was treasurer for the Lutheran Church, Owen, WI. His children attended Elmwood Elementary School.

He alway kept a large barrel of salted white fish on the back porch over the winter months to feed his family.

When the Great Depression hit at the end of 1929, Claus was forced to take on many small jobs to provide for his family.

He was supervisor the school board for the Green Grove area. There were accusations that he may have taken money from the school board. These accusations were not true but they deeply affected Claus. It was the start of the Great Depression and money was in short supply. School systems at this time often did not always receive their funding. As a result, it was easy for others to make false accusations

In the 1930 US Federal Census, Claus is shown as a Dairy Farmer living in Green Grove Township, Clark County, Wisconsin, with his family.

In October 1932, Claus disappeared. Johan Rudolph Borgeson, his first cousin relates this story: "Claus and I worked all day shingling a roof on the Sanstrom farm north of Owen, Wisconsin. Toward late afternoon, one or two of Claus's children came to get him. He talked with them, but did not go home with them. Claus was very quiet that day as though he had something on his mind. Later I went home and that was the last I seen of Claus. It was reported that Claus went to Owen where he cashed a check in the Owen Feed Mill. He was never traced after that. I remember them going out all day looking but never finding him. People reported having seen him at various places but he was never found. It was an unsolved case."

In later years, Johan Rudolph felt that Claus may have left the farm because of hard times and many responsibilities. But many other relatives feel that foul play was involved in his disappearance. Claus left every indication that he was returning home that evening. He had told Laura that the boys must be careful running the saw and that he would check their work when he returned that night. Relatives indicated that Claus was a quite man who loved his family. They think that Claus would have never left his family under any circumstance. Many people felt that Sanstrom was mentally ill and may have murdered Claus after he left town that night.

A skeleton was found years later on a nearby lake with a finger missing. At that time, it was impossible to positively identify the body. Claus had lost a finger in Silvis furniture shop many years before. Sanstrom was committed for life to a mental institution in later years.

In 1932, Anna applied to the Swedish government for a part of the inheritance from the estate of Claus's father and mother. Claus's brother, Ivar, would not support this claim because he believed Claus was still alive. However, the Swedish government awarded Anna's family 200 Swedish gold crowns.

Relatives in Sweden felt that Claus left Sweden because he was not given the Haggarden farm. Usually the oldest son is given the farm. Johan was the oldest but suffered from a mental problem. According to relatives in Sweden, Claus was the next oldest but his father, August, signed the farm over to Frans, after a drinking bout.

A Tribute to My Dad, Claus Oscar Hagberg
by Laura Hagberg DeHaven

For the years of work and sacrifice that you went through in our behalf, for the special times where we had fun and laughed, for instilling in me firm principals, what was good, right and true, for making me aware of my responsibility in every thing that I do, for loving me when I was good and still loving me when I was bad, for always sticking in there when times were hard and rough,
for giving up your wants and desires when there was not enough for us,
I will always remember you, dear father.

And now as I grow older, I never realized that on that day when you left for work that I would never see you again.

Mother's years were lonely without you and she yearned to know what happened.
She loved you very much. We all loved you very much.
I hope that you were feeling our love.

As the years went by, Mother's health was failing and as her days grew shorter, she looked at me, as if to say: "Don't feel bad, God has a plan.
I can see your Dad waiting on the other side."

Dear father, you are gone but not forgotten,

Your daughter, Laura

She died on 15 Feb 1959 in Alexandria, Douglas, Minnesota, USA<sub>[183]</sub>.

Notes for Ingeborg Carrie Thornbloom:

General Notes:

Carries, child Violet was a baby resulting from a rape. She was raised by Fred and Anna Thornbloom, Carrie's parents.

In 1956, Darrel Hagberg met Carrie in Alexandria, MN. She had suffered a severe stroke just prior to thde visit. Her and her husband Lossie rented fishing cabins on Lake Alexander where Raymond Hagberg and his sons stayed on their fishing trips.

Sidenote:

Alexander is the site of the famous Viking KensingtonRunestone. The Kensington Runestone is a slab of greywacke covered in runes on its face and side which, if it is genuine, would suggest that Scandinavian explorers reached the middle of North America in the 14th century. It was found in 1898 in the largely rural township of Solem, Douglas County, Minnesota and named after the nearest settlement, Kensington, Minnesota. Most runologists and linguists consider the runestone to be a hoax. On the other hand, two geologists who have made close studies of the stone have argued that the inscription is hundreds of years old. The community of Kensington is solidly behind the runestone, which has transcended its original cultural purposes and has "taken on a life of its own".

When Darrel Hagberg first saw the stone, it was laying, dusty and dirty on the floor of an old grocery store that had been converted into a city museum. Today, It is nicely mounted behind glass in a modern city museum.

Heart attack claims life of Leo Brunner, popular John Deere teacher, coach. By Jeff Wendland, Staff sports writer

Leo Brunner never met a kid he didn't like. Whether it was in the classroom as a geography teacher at Moline's John Deere Middle School or on the athletic field, Brunner was always there for the kids. Thursday, Brunner passed away from a heart attack suffered while warming up for a student/faculty basketball game at John Deere. The 55-year old 1966 graduate of Moline High School collapsed in the hallway and never regained consciousness. ``He was down by reading room warming up out of sight of the students who were already in the gym," said John Deere principal Bill Burrus. ``He had been chatting with Amanda Kelly, turned to walk out of room and fell. We were working on him within moments, the paramedics were there within a matter of minutes and I'd say he was at the hospital 15 minutes after he fell. The doctor said there was nothing more we could have done.

at Riverside Cemetery, Moline. Visitation will be 5-9 p.m. at Esterdahl Mortuary, 6601 38th Ave., Moline. An education fund is being established in Leo's honor. Memorials may be directed to the family.

Leo was born Jan. 9, 1948, in Moline, the son of Robert L. and Vivian M. Jackson Brunner.

Leo attended Moline public schools. He sang in the Moline Boys Choir as a youth and played Dad's Club baseball. Leo graduated from Moline High School in 1966 and from Augustana College in 1970 with a degree in history. He started his teaching career in 1971. Leo had been a geography teacher at John Deere Middle School since 1987. He received the Master Teacher award in 2000.

Sports played a major role in Leo's life. He was an avid Cubs and Bears fan. Leo coached track, football and basketball at John Deere for more than 20 years. He served as pitching coach for Post 246 Moline Legion baseball team until last summer. His command of sports and history trivia was legendary.

Leo was on the board of deacons at First Congregational Church and served on the pastoral search committee. As a member of the Moline Historical Society, he participated in the annual Cemetery Walk depicting famous community leaders of the past.

Leo touched the lives of countless youth in the Quad-Cities area. His first and consuming passion was teaching, a selfless dedication he expressed in the classroom and in his diverse coaching pursuits. Leo cherished his family, his co-workers, his students, his church and his community. His love for others was returned to him many times over.

Survivors (and spouse) include his brother, Kim (Donna), Bloomington, and nephews, Jonathan, Normal, and Jeremy, a senior at Augustana College. He is also survived by his godmother, Madeline Blancke, Rock Island, and aunts, uncles and cousins in the Freeport, Stockton, and Cambridge areas. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Brunner Legion invite keeps getting better

Today through Sunday, some of the premier American Legion baseball players in Illinois will be in the Quad-Cities to compete in the Leo Brunner Invitational. The event started in 2002 as the Fourth of July baseball tournament, but was renamed this year in honor of Brunner.

Brunner, who died of a heart attack in May 2003, was the Moline Post 246 American Legion pitching coach from 1987-2002.

Before Moline Post 246 plays St. Charles tonight at Augustana's new Duane R. Swanson Stadium at 7:30, Bloomington, Ill., resident Kim Brunner -- Leo's brother -- will throw out the first pitch. A ceremony dedicated to Leo Brunner at Swanson Stadium is slated for 7:15.

“Leo was a tremendous coach and a wonderful person, so it is fitting that we honor his memory with this tournament,” said Jim Zacharewicz, who is the Moline Post 246 coach and Leo Brunner Invitational coordinator. “This is definitely the strongest field we’ve ever had in this tournament, and I really believe that this is one of the best Fourth of July tourneys in Illinois.”

Dispatch Obituary dated 22 May 2007:

Jeffrey Hagberg

Funeral services to celebrate the life of Jeffrey Harlan Hagberg, 52, a resident of Davenport, will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday, May 24, at Halligan-McCabe-DeVries Funeral Home, Davenport. The Rev. Michael E. Vokt of Trinity Lutheran Church, Davenport, will celebrate the service.

Burial will be in Greenview Memorial Gardens, East Moline. Visitation will be 3 to 7 p.m. Wednesday at the funeral home. You can join the family at the funeral home at 7 p.m. Wednesday for a service of remembrance where you are invited to share a story or memory of Jeff. Memorials are suggested to an educational fund for his daughters, Amber and Megan.

Jeff died Sunday, May 20, 2007, at Clarissa C. Cook Hospice House, Bettendorf. He died after a battle with cancer, which was diagnosed in 2001. Jeff never let the cancer slow him down from living life.

He was born May 20, 1955, in Moline, a son of Harlan A. and Kathryn Peck Hagberg. He was united in marriage to Kathleen "Kathy" Lindle Kracaw Feb. 14, 1998.

Jeff began a career in the restaurant industry at the early age of 12. He assisted his family with the family restaurant, Harlan's in northwest Davenport. He dedicated 40 years of his life to the business including the building of a new restaurant at the same location. He owned and operated the business the last 25 years.

He cherished the time he spent with his family and many friends, especially enjoying his grandchildren. He was a dedicated fan of the St. Louis Cardinals, enjoyed riding his motorcycles, and he loved to golf and was known on the course as "Wiffle." He was very adventurous and enjoyed traveling. He was always ready to try something new. Jeff rarely met a food he did not like, whether in the U.S. or abroad! Food was a big part of his life, as was the camaraderie shared during the meal with friends or just his family.

Kathy's greatest memory that she will cherish was Jeff's ability to live, laugh and love, all of which he shared generously.

Those left to cherish his memory include his wife, Kathy; daughters, Amber and Megan; stepdaughters, Jamie Kracaw, Samantha (spouse, Ryan) Kracaw Schertz and Taylor Kracaw; three grandchildren, Kylie, McKenzie and Tucker; his father, Harlan (spouse, Shirley) Hagberg; brothers, Don Hellier and David Hellier; a stepsister, Teri; and stepbrothers, Fred, Tom and Mike. He is also going to be missed by his faithful companion, Keeta, his beloved dog. He was preceded in death by his mother, Kathryn Hagberg, June 29, 2006; and his sister, Kathleen "Kathy" Hagberg. May they rest in peace.

Online remembrances and condolences may be expressed to the family by visiting Jeff's obituary at www.hmdfuneralhome.com.

Steve Dockery was born about 1964 in Moline, Rock Island, Illinois, USA.

Steve Dockery and Tracy Ann Dunn were married on 31 Jul 1993. They had the following children:

- i. Samuel Austin Dockery was born on 14 May 1994.
- ii. Sebastian Dockery was born on 31 Aug 1996 in Sweden. He died on 26 Dec 1998 in Sweden.

Notes for Sebastian Dockery:

General Notes:

Taken from the Moline Dispatch, December 29, 1998:

Sebastian Dockery

Sebastian Wiley Dockery, 2, Moline, died just hours after Christmas Day on Dec. 26, 1998, in the arms of his Daddy while his Mommy held his hands in the room that he was born in at home.

Sebastian was born Aug. 31, 1996, to Steven Dockery Sr. and Tracy Dunn Dockery in Moline.

Sebastian was a big fan of Bob the Tomato, Larry the Cucumber and all of their ``Veggie Tales'' buddies. He also loved Buzz and Woody and recently picked up an affection for Blue (of ``Blue's Clues'').

Sebastian stole the hearts of our whole family at First United Presbyterian Church in Moline. The members of Dance Marathon/Newman Center of the U of I were a special target of his affection, as well as many nurses and docs, staff members and families at the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics, where he received his treatment for the cancer he developed, and Trinity Medical Center, where he received numerous blood transfusions.

The most notable accomplishment that Sebastian achieved was the way he brought people together for the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. The only treasures that we can build up here on earth that we can take with us when we enter the kingdom of heaven are relationships built through the love of Christ. Sebastian made sure that we came into contact with so many people that either grew deeper into a relationship with God or reached out to a relationship with Him.

A memorial tree will be planted in Moline to honor the life of Sebastian Dockery. A memorial fund will be established in his name. As an alternative to flowers, the family requests toys and stuffed animals, which Sebastian's family will donate to the University of Iowa Hospitals and Clinics.

Visitation services will be held Tuesday, Dec. 29, at Esterdahl Mortuary Ltd., from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 30, at First United Presbyterian Church, Moline, at 7 p.m.

Sebastian is survived by his parents; his brothers, Steven Jr., Samuel and Spencer, and a sister, Stephanie, all at home, and his sister, Michele Somers, West Newbury, Mass.; his maternal Grandma, Jean Larvenz, and her husband, Grandpa Chuck, from East Moline, maternal Grandpa, Larry Dunn of Charlotte, N.C., and paternal Grandma and Grandpa Dolores and Cleo Dockery of Hartford, Ky.; and Great-Grandmothers, Signe Thornbloom of Port Byron and Violet Allen of Moline.

Anders died (weakness) of old age on 1893 July 04. He was a bell ringer in the Karlskoga Church for 40 years.

On the initiative of Darrel Hagberg, Brita Bohl, and Kjell Nordqvist, a grave marker was erected and dedicated at Anders family grave site in the Karlskoga churchyard on 1986 July 04. Notes for Magnus Pettersson:

General Notes:

The Magnus Pettersson family lived in a small cottage Tavlan, Sweden from 1858 to 1888. Tavlan is located 7.7 kilometers north of Karlskoga. The cottage and land probably belonged to a large land owner who rented the place for farm work. The family was very poor. Magnus provided water to travelers on the road between Karlskoga and Tavlan to Kolyma. The water well was located directly across the road from the cottage. The cottage was about 24 feet long and 24 feet wide. The first floor was divided into a kitchen area located in the front part of the cottage and a small sleeping area in the rear. The most of the family slept in the 12 foot by 24 foot rear section. There was a small attic space that probably provided additional sleeping space.

The little cottage was seen along the highway from Karlskoga to Tavlan in 1986 by Darrel, Betty, and Darla Hagberg. It had been well taken care of the owner who showed it to them. The cottage contained the furniture used by the Magnus Pettersson family and was in "museum-like" condition.

In 2003, the Karlskoga Historical Society moved the little cottage to the inner city area. The following are E-mail's received by Darrel Hagberg from Sweden:

Darrel,

It was a pleasant surprise to hear from you after a number of years. I am 84 now, but am still active with our emigrant history. I get a good deal of info via the net and go down to our archives 2-3 times a week to include it in our files.

The old cottage at Tavljan came into the hands of the city authorities. They did not want to keep the cottage at the spot, as they were afraid it would be a haunt of drug-addicts, so our Heritage Society took it over, and it is now standing beside our "hembygdsgard" (where we had the party after the dedication of the Werelius stone*). It was taken by car from Tavljan to the "hembygdsgard". It will house a shoemaker's shop (museal). Also textiles will be kept there.

Best wishes to you and your family, the baby (Angela) included,

Dear Mr Hagberg,

I got a message from Kjell Nordquist that you were interested in the small cottage in Tavljan north of Karlskoga, where Sally Herbst's ancestors came from. It is true that the cottage has now been moved to the Local Heritage Society of Karlskoga and its mansion there. The city council of Karlskoga wanted the house removed from its old place. It had been empty for many years and there was a fear that the house could turn into some shelter for drug-users etc.

So we got it from the city council, moved it to our old homestead and has given it a new life; careful restoration has begun. It is not a "backstuga", which means that a house is dug into the hill slope behind. Its is quite an ordinary old Swedish cottage from the medium 1880's. But it is a nice little cottage and will be used for a) a shoemaker's museum in the kitchen and b) for handicraft, exp. textiles in the room.

I guess Kjell Nordqvist has given you more detail's of the house. Your cousin is very welcome to come and see it!

With best wishes,
Karin Oman
President of the Local Heritage Society of Karlskoga.

Magnus was baptised 9 March 1817.

In 1840, Magnus gave a false statement in a legal matter while under oath according to the Household Examination Record. This statement is listed in all Household Examination Records after 1840 until his death. A version of a "Scarlet Letter" that was to follow him the rest of his life.

Generation 2 (con't)

Notes for Carl Johan Magnusson Horneman:

General Notes:

Carl was a Corporal in the Swedish Army in the town of Horn near Munktorp from 1878 through 1900. From 1878 to 1888, he changed his name of "Fröjd." This was a normal practice in the Swedish Army because many soldiers had similar last names and Magnusson was a very common last name. To distinguish himself from the other soldiers, he took a new last name. Between 1889 and 1901, he changed his name again to "Horneman" (after the army post where he was stationed, "Horn"). According to the 1890 and 1900 Swedish Census, the family is living in Horn, Sweden.

According to Swedish records, he left Nedervi, Lillhärad, Västmanlands Län, Västmanland, Sweden, on 19 February 1907 with his wife, Josefina, and two of his children, Karl and Nils. The family most likely arrived in the United States in March 1907. The exact information concerning their arrival has not been determined mainly because of the many names that they assumed during their immigration.

Carl's son, Olaf Victor, came to America on 21 November 1906, and settled in Rockford, Illinois. Another son, Carl Horneman, and a daughter, Agnes Horeman, remained in Sweden.

After his arrival in the United States in 1907, he changed his last name to Thornbloom (similar to his brothers).

Swedish emigrant records shows a Karl J Magnusson of America leaving Gothenberg on 23 August 1907 and a Karl Jojan Horneman of Ryttterne (born in Karlskoga) leaving Gothenberg on 25 September 1926.

Carl's brother, Eric, was the first brother to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). He helped his other brothers to leave Sweden and come to America through a loan program sponsored by John Deere. This helped Deere and Company to recruit workers for their plant in Moline, Illinois. After working for Deere for awhile, most of the brothers returned to farming (their occupation in Sweden). However, Gus Adolf worked for the railroad.

iv. Anders Fredrik Magnusson Thornbloom<sup>[52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63]</sup> was born on 16 Nov 1861 in Tavljan-Källmo, Karlskoga, Värmlands Län, Sweden<sup>[11, 22]</sup>. He married Anna Hast on 04 Nov 1883 in Stockholm, Sweden<sup>[11]</sup>. He died on 04 Mar 1934 in St. Cloud, Iona Township, Todd County, MN<sup>[64]</sup>.

Notes for Anders Fredrik Magnusson Thornbloom:

General Notes:

Anders was also known Anders Törnblom and Anders Magnusson and Anders Magnusson. His nickname was "Fret." He and his brothers assumed the name Törnblom after their arrival in America. Later this was changed to Thornbloom which sounded more American, Törn is Swedish "tower" and blom is "bloom." Törnblom could have been a military name assigned to him or one of his brothers to distinguish them from hundreds of other Magnusson's. Magnusson was a very common name in Sweden.

Eric was the first brother to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). He helped his other brothers to leave Sweden and come to America through a loan program sponsored by John Deere. This helped Deere and Company to recruit workers for their plant in Moline, Illinois. After working for Deere for awhile, most of the brothers returned to farming (their occupation in Sweden). However, Gus Adolf worked for the railroad.

In 1880, Anders moved from Karlskoga to Munktorp. In 1883, he moved to Kolback and then back to Munktorp in 1884. He lived in Munktorp another 9 years before moving to Västeras, Sweden, to live with the Erik Windblad family. Fret's family lived there for 2-1/2 years.

According to the 1890 Swedish Census, Anders and his family was living in Munktorp, Västmanlands Län, Västmanlands, Sweden. His son, Fred Magnusson, is not shown in the census. Probably Fred died before 1890.

The family had read about farm land in America in an advertisement in a St. Paul, Minnesota, newspaper sent to him by his brother Carl.

Leaving his wife and children behind, Anders Fredrik Thornbloom (Magnussen) came to America with Erik Windblad, father of John and Rudy, in April 1893. They took a train from Västeras to Gotenburg and then traveled to Helsingborg.

Anders traveled on the Ship "Italia" departing from Helsingborg, Malmohus, Sweden, using the family name, Magnussen. The ship arrived at Ellis Island in New York on April 24, 1893. On line 181 of the ship's manifest, his name is listed as: "Anders J. Magnussen." Line 182 list his friend as: "Erik Aug. Windblad."

After arriving in New York, Anders and Erik went to Ellis Island for an Emmigration check. They took a train from New York to Moline, Illinois, to visit his brother, Carl and a cousin, Gus Thornbloom, before going to Alabama. Fret and friend Erik Windblad went to the "Flat Iron Saloon in East Moline to look for his brother. Carl thought that he recognized his brother Fret and said to a friend: "I swear that's by brother Fret." Fret then called out to his brother Carl. After visiting with his brother, Anders Fredrik decided not to go to Alabama but instead stay in the Moline, Illinois area.

Later in the year, Fredrik sent for his wife Anna Haft and his children: (Henrik, Anna, Carrie (Ingeborg), and Swan (Elias). The family traveled from Goteborg, Goteborg och Bohus, Sweden, on the German ship "Bohemia." Again, they used the family name Magnussen. They arrived at Ellis Island, New York, on November 21, 1893.

Erik Windblad brought his wife, Johanna, and a young son and daughter, John and Signe, to America later in 1894.

Anders Fredrik took a job at the "Swedish Brickyard" below the hill near the Moline-East Moline city limits. Erik Windblad purchased the first lot in what is now the city of East Moline, Illinois near First Street and 17th Avenue.

In 1894, Anders Fredrik (known as Fret to his friends) took up farming near Third Street, East Moline, Illinois, near the current location of St. Mary's Cemetery. He rented the land from a man named "Edlund". Ivar was born in Moline, Illinois, on 1895 March 08. This was their first child to be born in America. After two years, Fred moved his family to the Fountain Place in Port Byron, Illinois. He rented the farm property from a man named Peirsall from about 1896 to 1902. Casper was born on 1897 May 05 and Phyra was born 1899 July 29. Mrs Erik Windblad was a midwife and helped to bring the first Thornbloom children born in America into the world.

Fret and his family moved to Cambridge, Illinois, in 1902. He purchased a meat market and livery stable. Ida was born 1903 February 03 in Cambridge. While in Cambridge, Anna sold subscriptions to a magazine, and won a diamond ring. She also work as a Chef in a local restaurant. The Windblad brother's mentioned that Fret was not a very good businessman because he was to generous to his hired help. Fret finally decided to get back into farming about 1904. He sold his business and moved to Blue Grass, Iowa, where he purchased a farm.

While in Blue Grass, Fret not only ran the farm but also ran a coal mine operation from 1904-1913 (approximate).

Sadie was born on the farm on 1905 February 07. In 1908, little Ida died at the age of 5 years. Although the cause of death is unknown, it was known that Ida bled easily and may have suffered from Hemophilae.

The family moved again in 1911 to a farm located in Ashley Township, Minnesota, for a short time. They then moved to the Morse farm located on the shores of Long Lake, northeast of Sauk Centre, Minnesota. Fret worked a farming operation and sold farm property to other new immigrants, thus helping many of his fellow countrymen to become established in America. They lived there for 25 years.

On 1919 September 21, Phyra died at 20 years. Again the cause was suspected to be Hemophilae.

Fret and Anna lived out their days in Sauk Centre, Minnesota, and are buried there in Greenwood cemetery, east of the city. Fred died on a Sunday, 1934 March 04, at 2:30 pm after an illness.

Anna Hast was known as "Moster Fret" to her side of the family while Anders Fredrik was known as "Faster Fret" to his side of the family.

Fret and Anna along with their children: Anna, Carrie, and Henry, never became U.S. citizens. However, it is known that Swan did after several years in America.

v. Pehr Viktor Magnusson Thornbloom<sup>[65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75]</sup> was born on 13 Mar 1864 in Tavlan-Källmo, Karlskoga, Värmlands Län, Sweden<sup>[22, 76, 77]</sup>. He married Johanna Mathilda Olsdotter about 1885 in Karlskoga, Värmland, Sweden. He died on 15 Jul 1940 in Moline, Rock Island, Illinois, USA.

Notes for Pehr Viktor Magnusson Thornbloom:

General Notes:

Pehr Viktor's brother, Erick, was the first brother to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). He married Elisabet Augusta Larson on 12 Dec 1886 in Moline, Rock Island, Illinois, USA. He died on 22 Jun 1939 in Moline, Rock Island, Illinois, USA.

from Magnusson to Thornbloom when he came to America. Eric and wife Augusta settled in Port Byron, IL.

It appears that Eric travelled back to Sweden in 1897 and returned via Liverpool to New York on 21 August 1897 under the name of "Thornblom" on the Cunard liner "Lucania." The Passenger list states his age as 32 years and his designation as Moline, IL.

Eric was the first brother to come to America and worked for John Deere (Deere and Company). He helped his other brothers to leave Sweden and come to America through a loan program sponsored by John Deere. This helped Deere and Company to recruit workers for their plant in Moline, Illinois. After working for Deere for awhile, most of the brothers returned to farming (their occupation in Sweden). However, Gus Adolf worked for the railroad.

Eric came to America in 1885 at the age of 20. He settled on a farm in Coe Township near Port Byron. He was about 5'-8" tall. He belonged to "Eagles on the Rock River." He liked to read and usually had a garden. Hilma Thornbloom says that he was a very kind man and liked children. Esther Thornbloom said the Erick was a real Man's man. He retired from John Deere in 1930. He started as a bench worker. He also worked as foreman, trucker, plowfitter and machinist. He loved fishing.

Eagle Lunch Restaurant – Moline, Illinois, USA

After the disappearance of her husband, Anna Thornbloom Hagberg returned to Moline, Illinois from Green Grove, Wisconsin. In 1939, she opened the Eagle Lunch Restaurant on the corner of 6th Avenue and 14th Street in Moline. The restaurant was popular with the downtown working class people. Anna provided Swedish home cooked meals at a reasonable cost. She also served Swedish pancakes. She later sold her recipe to the International House of Pancakes (IHOP) which introduced the rest of America to the Swedish Pancake.

The restaurant was open from the end of the Great Depression in 1939 through the difficult War years of 1941-1945 and closed in 1959. During this period, the restaurant was also managed by her daughter Laura Hagberg and her son, Raymond Hagberg.

The restaurant took its name from the Federated Order of Eagles (FOE), a men's social organization, located directly across the street from the restaurant. Anna lived in a small house located directly behind the restaurant.

This is a photograph of Anna Thornbloom Hagberg (far right) with servers and customers taken about 1943 during World War II.

The War years were also difficult for Anna because of food rationing and price controls. Her daughter and sons worked in the restaurant at different times before, during, and after the war. Three of her five sons served in the armed forces during the war. Her grandsons, Darrel and Larry Hagberg also worked in the restaurant in the late 1950's.

Claus & Anna Hagberg's Farm
Green Grove, Wisconsin, USA
1960

Claus and Anna Hagberg moved to Green Grove, Wisconsin, from Moline, Illinois, in 1912 where they established a farm. All of their children except for one were born there.

They worked the farm for 20 years. However, the Great Depression began in October 1929 and farming became very difficult. Claus took on carpentry jobs to help support his family and the farm. After working on one such job in October 1932, he disappeared.

Without Claus, Anna was forced to give up the farm due to back taxes in 1933. She and some of the children lived in a small house adjoining a nearby farm for five years.

In 1938, Anna Thornbloom Hagberg returned to Moline, Illinois from Green Grove, Wisconsin. She worked as a cook for Short Hills Country Club in East Moline, Illinois, from 1938 to 1939. In 1939, she started her own restaurant in Moline, Illinois.

Hilma Thornbloom was the youngest child of nine children of Viktor and Hulda Thornbloom. She was a supervisor at Illinois Bell Telephone Company in Moline, Illinois. She never married but was very close to her family including her nieces and nephews. She was the official Thornbloom family historian. In her last years before her passing, from 1983-1986, she shared her family history files, photographs, and stories with Darrel Hagberg. She also assisted in contacting relatives in Sweden on behalf of Darrel for a visit to Sweden in 1985. She died in 1990 and was the last surviving member of Viktor's family. Darrel assumed the role of family historian after her passing. Everyone is appreciative of Hilma's efforts to document the early history of the Magnusson - Thornbloom families in America and Sweden.
